Poetical Announcements.

Kind friends give attention to this little rhyme,
'Tis something of interest this holiday time.
For when at our homes our friends we would greet,
How essential it is to have plenty to eat.
So lay in your turkey, your ducks and your geese.
Your porksteak or beefsteak, whatever you please.
But just before purchasing 'tis well you should know,
Who keeps the best dressed meats and where you should go.
Call at W. H. Rollins' and then you will see,
Dressed meats of all kinds as fine as can be;
A beautiful porker suspended appears,
With fat a foot thick just back of his ears.
Dressed meats that weigh six hundred or more,
And reach from the ceiling near down to the floor.
While spareribs and cutletto and fowls piled on high,
Arranged so to captivate the epicure's eye.
O'er all this confusion appears on the wall,
The holiday greeting "Merry Christmas" to all.
In our issue of last week
We did publish a note to speak
The announcement of John Holden & Brother,
That they did intend to make
A display without mistake
Of such Christmas meats as never before
[was offered].
Now the boys knew what to do
For to carry their plans through,
For the beef you can see hanging in the shop,
'Tis the fattest of the times
And was bought of Jacob Grimes,
A fancier and breeder of good stock.
There was some of the finest pork
Ever displayed in any shop;
It was raised by our John Collins, over East;
There were five all just alike,
Everyone so nice and white,
Weighing about 250 pounds apiece.
Among the things we noticed there,
And it made the people stare;
Was a hog which weighed 800 more or less;
Thos. Rapley raised and fed it,
And it shows he did not starve it.
As it ranks among the largest and the best.
Then the lamb though not the largest,
Yet we think among the fattest,
By McKenzie out in Fremont it was raised;
Meats and poultry of all kinds,
Decorated, Oh! so fine,
Such a labor undertaking should have praise.

Reliable Wagons!

The farmer is often reminded that a Wagon that can be depended upon at all times is a treasure indeed. We wish to remind the farmers of Eastern Michigan that is the only wagon that has stood the test of years, in spring time and harvest. The Studebaker Slope Shoulder Spoke is strongest where the square tenon is weak. The spokes, being first prepared with glue are driven into place with a powerful machine spoke-driver, and will never rattle or become loose. The axle boxes are pressed into the hubs by a 100-ton hydraulic press. With patent cast sandage patent steel skeins, truss axle, patent oval-edged tire, woodwork after years of seasoning soaked in boiling oil, skeins of Lake Superior Iron, best of workmanship throughout makes the Studebaker the King of Wagons.

THE CELEBRATED STUDEBAKER WAGON

November, December and January Specialties: P. K. Derick steel and wood Hay Presses, Washburn and Griswold hay ties; Waterloo Spring Wagons and buggies; Dick famous Feed Cutters; Crown Grain Drills; Farmer's friend Gang Plows; Anderson and Wilkinson Walking Plows; Rose Disk Harrows, also a complete stock of Carriages, Wagons and Heavy Hardware, Wood Stock and Trimmings.

Respectfully Yours,

James H. Moore, - Yale, Mich.,
